5. Scope and Content Note

The Shannon Boyd-Bailey McCune papers [1894-1984 (bulk late 1900s)] consist of writings, research, maps, filmstrips, photographs, negatives, audiotapes, correspondence, and printed materials created and collected by Shannon McCune during his life and career as a geographer, civil servant, and academic. The majority of the material consists of personal correspondence, assorted writings, and other various materials.

The collection also includes a variety of drafts for Shannon McCune's published works, academic materials including lecture notes, research proposals, and speech manuscripts, field notes for various trips to Asia, and multiple documents relating to Shannon McCune's service as Civil Administrator of the US Civil Administration of the Ryukyu Islands.

The Shannon Boyd-Bailey McCune papers (1913 – 1993) span the years 1894-1984 (bulk late 1900s), when McCune served as president of University of Massachusetts and University of Vermont, the UNESCO Department of Education Director, Civil Administrator of the US Civil Administration of the Ryukyu Islands, and he lectured and authored several books centered on Asian geography. The majority of the collection consists of correspondence and other personal materials. The papers also include maps of Asia and documentation of Shannon Boyd-Bailey McCune's research and lecture notes while he taught Korean geography at University of Florida, Gainesville, FL. The collection consists of the Writings by Shannon McCune, Research Monographs by Shannon McCune, Works by Others, Maps, Reports, Memoranda, and Conference Materials by Academic Institutions, Audiovisual Materials, Personal Files, Correspondence, 1941-1982, and Unspecified, 1952-1991 series. These records relate to Korean and Ryukyu Islands geography, Asian Studies in American universities, the Korean independence movement, and the postwar reconstruction period in Korea.

The Writings by Shannon McCune series contains area studies, writings, curriculum proposals, research proposals, and unpublished notes. They span Japan, the Ryukyu Islands, China, Indonesia, India, Sri Lanka, Ethiopia, and the United States. Some are geography and other academic subjects related, some are speech manuscripts, some correspondence, and others include Shannon McCune's field notes on his travels in Asia from 1931 to 1970.

The contents of the series Research Monographs by Shannon McCune include research monographs on Korea and Ryukyu Islands project research and information papers. The sub-series focusing on Korea spans from 1941 to 1952 and covers climate, geomorphology, geography, archaeology, and history. The sub-series focusing on the Ryukyu Islands spans 1971 to 1975 and covers geography, agriculture (including fishing), history, climate, and population.

Works by Others contains series focused on Korea, Japan, the Ryukyu Islands, China, Taiwan, Indonesia, India, the United States, geography, and other subjects. It spans from 1818 to 1983 and features official documents, periodicals, articles, monographs, and other items written by persons who are not Shannon Boyd-Bailey McCune.

Maps includes historic maps of Korea, Manchuria, the Ryukyu Islands, India, Vietnam, and Hawai'i. These maps were collected by Shannon McCune, and were produced during the years 1885 to 1977.

The Reports, Memoranda, and Conference Materials by Academic Institutions series spans 1942 to 1983. It contains materials for the American Geographical Society, Clark University, Colgate University, the United States Department of State, UNESCO, University of Florida, University of Hawai'i, University of Illinois, University of the Ryukyus, and University of Vermont. This includes newsletters, correspondence, memoranda, speech manuscripts, and other written materials.

The Audiovisual Materials series contains filmstrips, photographs, slides, cassette tapes, and audiotapes. It spans the years 1944 to 1979. These materials cover various regions including Korea, Manchuria, Japan, the Ryukyu Islands, China, Saudi Arabia, India, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Europe, and Africa.

The Personal Files series spans the years 1957 to 1971. It includes biographical data on Shannon McCune, a collection of certificates for Shannon McCune and Edith Blair McCune, correspondence, retirement and insurance documents, Shannon McCune's last will and testament, and an extensive collection of index and name cards.

The Correspondence, 1941-1984 series includes various letters, telegrams, memoranda, newspaper clippings, postcards, notes, manuscripts, drafts, and realia. Some documents are personal while others pertain to Shannon McCune's academic and government service career.

Unspecified series spans 1952 to 1991 and contains an assortment of written materials. Some of it serves as a continuation of the Correspondence, while other items are duplicates. There is a section specifically dedicated to Shannon McCune's drafting of "Korea: A Regional Geography" and other materials related to Korea. There are also various booklets, book scans, bibliographies, and other miscellaneous papers and items.
